Volunteering Together: Prepare Veggies, Empower Those in Need!

Roma is proud to announce its continued collaboration with Food Angel for the third consecutive year, reinforcing its commitment to community engagement and sustainable food practices. This year's initiative focused on preparing and sorting raw vegetables to help those in need.

This year, Food Angel opened a new operation site, the Food Angel Jockey Club Food Production Centre, in Sha Tin. The brand-new facility is significantly larger than other production sites, allowing for centralised operations and a significant boost in meal production capacity.

17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

During the event, around 20 volunteers from Roma and four listed companies took part in this impactful effort. During the session, participants learned various vegetable processing methods and gained hands-on experience, deepening their appreciation for sustainability and its positive impact on society. In total, the team processed over 700 kg of vegetables, which will be transformed into more than 20,000 nutritious meal boxes for underprivileged communities.

Roma remains committed to supporting initiatives that promote sustainability and social responsibility, creating meaningful change for the community.

We would like to express our deepest gratitude to the following companies for their generous support:
